

30th Annual Elkhart County Parks Photo Contest Display

January 25 - 28, 2010

Community Room · Concord Mall · Elkhart, IN

Free Photo Workshops and Seminars

Free Workshops and Seminars Community Room of the Concord Mall

Monday, January 25 – 7:00 p.m.

The Southwest—A Land of Contrasting Beauty

Discover the beauty of the American southwest as captured through the lens of photographer, Jill Perry. Travel with her through the landscapes of the Grand Canyon, Painted Desert, Death Valley and more.

Tuesday, January 26 – 6:30 p.m.

How to Get the Most Out of Your (D)SLR Camera

Danny Graber will share techniques on how to choose the appropriate shutter speed and aperture (f-stop), tips on avoiding camera shake and movement and how to read your camera's histogram for correct exposure. (Bring your DSLR manual.)

Wednesday, January 27 – 7:00 p.m.

Inexpensive Indoor Wintertime Black and White Photography

Robert Morris will discuss how to create some inexpensive indoor still life black and white photography. With the use of available window light or using one or two flood lights one can achieve wonderful black and white images with dramatic highlights and shadows.

Thursday, January 28 – 7:00 p.m.

Photographing Birds

Photographing birds can be a challenge. Photographer, Lyman Hug will present tips and techniques on bird photography and show examples of his original bird photography.

For more information call 574.535.6458